Announcement of Open Position for Called Pastor

Please share this announcement with anyone you know who is in ministry (whether they are seeking a new call or not) as well as with anyone who knows people in the ministry.

First Presbyterian Church of Branchville (FPCB), in rural northwest New Jersey is currently seeking a full-time Pastor. We are a small but vibrant congregation that welcomes all as we celebrate God's love. Our traditional worship is warm, personal and includes bell and chancel choirs. FPCB is financially stable and excited about renovation plans for our Fellowship Hall.

FPCB is located in the quaint borough of Branchville, nestled in the northwest Skylands region of Sussex County, NJ. Residents enjoy the many lakes, state forests and farms in the area, while also easily accessing the Poconos and New York City each an hour away.

FPCB has enthusiastic staff, deacons and elders who direct worship, mission, music, education, and the business of the church. We are seeking a full-time pastor who will:

- Collaborate with staff/congregation to nurture new ideas/programs to increase membership.
- foster the spiritual growth of church members through worship, education, prayer, and fellowship.
- Engage with the local community through outreach programs and mission work.
